101 Writing Prompts for High School Mark Trevor 2024-05-15 Improve your writing skills with this prompt book from a teacher with over 20 years of classroom experience! Put on your thinking cap and dust off your pen, because this book of writing prompts is jam-packed with fun and engaging ideas for teens. Inside, you'll find prompts for fiction, essays, opinions, descriptive writing, and more. Use them for assignments, daily writing warm-ups, or just for fun. This book was created with teenagers in mind, and the topics reflect that. There are prompts about everyday life, school, friendships, family, and embarrassing moments. And for teens who love wild and wacky scenarios, there are plenty of prompts for them, too. Here are a few prompts you'll find in this book: What is the most embarrassing thing you have ever said out loud? What was the best advice anyone ever gave you? Compose a post-apocalyptic story about the last two people on Earth. Who are they, and how do they survive? What if you had to spend the next 60 days living alone in a treehouse in your backyard? What issues are "deal breakers" for you in a relationship? Each prompt is followed by several thought-provoking questions to jump-start your creativity. It's the most fun you'll ever have writing a story or essay. Whether you want funny story starters, journal ideas, or persuasive writing prompts, this book has it all. Let the writing begin! This book is in line with Common Core standards and has prompts for narrative, descriptive, expository, and persuasive writing.

Project-Based Writing in Science Lawrence Baines 2014-09-23 Turn your students into scientists who use their knowledge and creativity to solve real-world problems. Each lesson features a step-by-step guide; a summary of recent research; and handouts that are classroom-ready. Learn about the three levels of writing, from a Level 1 quickwrite to a formal, multi-part, Level 3 research paper. Each writing assignment—narrative, persuasive, and informative—includes a detailed rubric that makes grading easy. Students collaborate to contain an outbreak of avian flu, lead a group of people trying to survive under harsh conditions, battle drought in a densely-populated city in the American southwest, research the behavior of animals in the local region, and calculate their own speed, velocity, and momentum. Engaging and demanding, Project-Based Writing in Science helps students to understand and improve the world.

Winning Ideas from Winning Schools Dawn Hansen Heller 1989 Common Core Writing Prompts and Strategies Facing History and Ourselves 2015-05-28 This resource further aligns our Choices in Little Rock unit with the Common Core State Standards through an argumentative writing assignment. Choices in Little Rock is a teaching unit that focuses on efforts to desegregate Central High School in Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1957, and explores civic choices -- the decisions people make as citizens in a democracy. This supplement includes specific writing prompts and teaching strategies that ask students to use evidence as they craft a formal argumentative essay. In addition, the resource features effective writing strategies for the social studies classroom.

Meeting Common Core Standards for Argumentative Writing Malissa Ann Stotts 2014 High school students are lacking writing skills to be successful in post-secondary education, and in the work force. At work, writing is a gateway for employment and promotion, especially in salary positions. Those seeking employment in businesses as well as government and state jobs must be able to create clearly written documents such as emails, messages, memoranda, and technical reports. Writing also influences the participation in civic life and the community at large. In order to meet these post-secondary expectations for writing, new Common Core State Standards are being implemented in 45 states, including California. Common Core State Standards (CCSS) require high school students to write using evidence from primary and secondary source texts across academic areas, rather than from prior experience. Potentially, students with learning disabilities, especially those in their later years of high school, will be impacted because they will not have had the writing exposure. While the CCSS are already being implemented, no established curriculum has yet to be published for teachers to use. Therefore, the purpose of this project was to develop and pilot test a curriculum unit tailored specifically to meet the needs of students with learning disabilities and to promote their success in argumentative writing. With this curriculum, teachers can teach multiple lessons over a period of time to their students regarding effective argumentative writing. Students can develop and learn to use valid reasoning to support their claim as well as to provide relevant and sufficient evidence. The curriculum unit begins with an introduction and instructions on how to write a measurable IEP goal aligned with the relevant CCSS and guidelines for the implementation of explicit/direct instruction, UDL, scaffolding and other evidence-based organizational strategies to teach students with learning disabilities. Next, nine unit lessons plans offer strategies and materials to walk students through the step-by-step process of writing an argumentative essay. Manipulatives, such as a foldable or graphic organizer, and collaboration with peers are suggested to foster and strengthen writing skills. The curriculum unit was implemented twice with nineteen high school freshmen with learning disabilities using two separate writing prompts over a four-month period. Throughout the implementation of the lessons, growth was measured using a four-point rubric and the majority of students demonstrated progress toward meeting the CCSS standards for argumentative writing.
