Enhancing Outcomes and Shaping the Future of HBCUs Teodorescu, Daniel 2024-10-18 Despite the growth in number of scholars doing work on Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), many of the same challenges persist, such as low retention rates, financial struggles, and small endowments. However, the post-COVID era has ignited renewed interest in HBCUs, driven by the Black Lives Matter Movement and a significant increase in donations since 2020. This surge in attention has led to what some call an HBCU renaissance, with growing interest from researchers, policymakers, and donors. As the field of HBCU studies expands, it is crucial to evaluate the current research and identify future directions for study. Enhancing Outcomes and Shaping the Future of HBCUs addresses the lack of research on HBCUs and aims to enrich scholarly understanding by summarizing current studies. It highlights key findings, methodologies, and implications for HBCUs, and explores the valuable insights gained from these studies, emphasizing their role in shaping educational policy and practice. Covering topics such as academic success, educational research, and research capacity, this book is an excellent resource for scholars, researchers, scholar-practitioners, graduate and postgraduate students, educators, policymakers, and more.

The Oxford Handbook of Educational Psychology Angela O'Donnell 2026-03-13 Educational psychology explores how people learn, stay motivated, and grow across a wide range of formal and informal educational settings. With a discipline that covers such varied contexts for teaching and learning, The Oxford Handbook of Educational Psychology, serves as a much-needed overview of the field. Core chapters will discuss social and cognitive development, theories of learning, instructional approaches, collaborative learning, assessment, student motivation, teaching of a specific subject, and research methods. This book is an essential resource for those working both in and out of schools and will set the research agenda for years to come.
