Here Goes Nothing Kendra Broekhuis 2017-02-28 What happens when you ask God, "What do you want me to do today?" This is not a success story. And it's not one of those stories that has a beginning, a middle, and then a perfectly tidy hind end either. It's really just a beginning. For thirty days Kendra Broekhuis prayed "to maintain the joy of being wife and mommy amid the daily grind. To see the world through God's eyes. To live intentionally. To build relationships and share Christ's love with our neighbors. To learn what it really means to give. To collide 'motherhood' with 'mission.'" This became her motto, her credo, her personal mission statement. Some days it led to actions the Lord gently nudged her to take. Other days it led to reflections the Lord gently whispered into her heart. Every day it led to a single word, one underlying theme that ties all thirty days - all thirty chapters - and their wide variety of topics together: giving. These thirty days found Kendra and her husband and daughter in a strange time of transition. They had just moved back to the United States after teaching for three years in the beautiful country of Guatemala. They were in a new city, working a new job, living in a new apartment building, in search of a new church. And they wanted to put it all together: all of their experiences, all of the things they had just seen and learned and read and discussed. It wasn't a clean slate but rather a chance to live intentionally. When Kendra and her husband sought advice about the transition from fellow missionary friends, the advice was, "Get to know your neighbors." It might sound like strange advice, but it made sense. Jesus tells us to "Love God and love your neighbor." Many times the word neighbor is meant to be vague, but it shouldn't always be. Part of being mission-minded, no matter where you live or work, is being willing to love the people closest to you, people we often overlook. Kendra's neighbors—as in the people who live in the other eleven apartments in her building—are whom she often found the Lord's generosity overflowing to and from during these thirty days.

Apple Crisp Recipes Alicia K Spinks 2020-10-24 Apple Crisp Recipe is the best fall dessert! Most times, freshly sliced apples are topped with a buttery cinnamon oat topping that tastes great with a scoop of vanilla ice cream! "Don't eat that - your weight will explode!" This cracks me up. Every now and again you turn on your TV and see some news reporter chattering on and on about the 'hidden dangers' of sugar and apple crisp as it mostly contains sugar. "Sugar is worse than smoking cigarettes!" "Taking sugar will blow your weight out of proportion and make your husband hate you!" "Eating 3 oz a day of sugar will make your body weight explode... and vegans will line up to spit on your grave!" This is madness! You and I both know that taking artificial sugar isn't at all that bad for you as painted. In fact, taking sugar often is actually one of the healthiest things you can eat. But you can only enjoy all these amazing health benefits if you pay attention carefully. The same thing can be said of natural sugars if taken excessively. If you take it in excess, then you can expect to have an over bloated tummy and a much lower nutritional value. Now, listen. If you take sugar on a normal proportion, your weight won't explode... Don't you want to eat apple crisp recipes with crunchy, quality, better cooked, great taste to augment your nutrient profile? Don't you think you'd have more energy if you fueled your body with the right kind of carb? Don't you think your health would be better if you ate the highest quality apple crisp crumbles and oats? Don't you think you'd enjoy each and every day a little bit more knowing that everything you eat is contributing to your health and performance instead of ruining it? Don't you want to enjoy this Christmas holiday and winter with the right meals? You're smart! You care about your health and performance. And you want to look and feel good. You owe it to yourself to at least test-drive APPLE CRISP RECIPES one time. Discover how these APPLE CRISP RECIPES can help you eat better and feel better every day.
