Hidden Creatures Raina Mooncrest 2025-03-05
"Hidden Creatures" unveils the captivating realm of animal camouflage, diving deep into the evolutionary arms race between predator and prey. It explores how natural selection has driven the development of incredible concealment strategies, from blending seamlessly into backgrounds to mimicking other species. Astonishingly, some animals don disguises so convincingly that they resemble inanimate objects, while others employ mimicry to imitate dangerous creatures, deterring potential predators. The book examines camouflage, disguise, and mimicry, highlighting their roles in survival. It showcases diverse examples of these adaptations across various habitats, grouping them by habitat type and evolutionary relationships. Readers will gain insights into the sensory perception and neural mechanisms that underpin these behaviors, as well as the evolutionary drivers behind them. The book progresses from basic definitions and illustrative examples to detailed case studies and discussions of the underlying evolutionary forces. What sets "Hidden Creatures" apart is its focus on explaining the "how" and "why" of animal concealment, bridging detailed observations with modern scientific understanding. It culminates by exploring the implications of camouflage research for fields such as military technology, robotics, and even art and design. This approach offers a thorough and engaging exploration of the natural world that is sure to appeal to anyone interested in biology, nature, science, and life sciences.

Masters of Camouflage and Endangered Animals Petra Demas 2020-09-17 Explore the world of 13 fascinating creatures with nine-year-old artist Petra who loves animals and wants to help protect them. This animal coloring book reflects her passion for masters of camouflage and endangered species in the animal kingdom. She would like to raise awareness among other kids and will donate proceeds to animal conservation organizations. The coloring book includes both black and white pages for you to color according to your unique personal style and hand-colored pages as she has envisioned them in their natural habitats. She has also included key facts and major threats to each animal based on her own research. The 13 hand-drawn animals include the vaquita, pangolin, hawksbill sea turtle, tiger, whale shark, snow leopard, snowy owl, flat-tail horned lizard, leafy sea dragon, luna moth, flounder, octopus, and orchid mantis. Journey to the Himalayas, deep jungles, the Arctic, coral reefs, Sonoran Desert, and the Sea of Cortez among other corners of our beautiful planet, and see them through the eyes and imagination of a young girl.

Join her in hoping for a brighter future for these animals and protecting them for our future generations.

Toni Buzzeo and YOU Toni Buzzeo 2005-10-30 Playing on the phrase, The author and you, a commonly taught reading comprehension strategy that teaches the learner how to look at the words of an author and make inferences about what is being said, this series assists teachers and teacher-librarians in understanding the underlying purposes of the author as they prepare learning activities for their students. Through family photos, reminiscences, anecdotes and stories, Toni Buzzeo relates her lifelong preparation to become a writer. The book features wonderful insights into the creation of her picture books for children and interesting creative lesson activities to use with students. The series focuses primarily on books for the elementary age child (K-6), featuring insights into the author's background, purposes and goals in writing books. By furnishing an overview of the author's works, the books in the series give teachers the big picture. Each book features personal information about the author, including insights into why this author has chosen to write in a specific genre plus lesson plans and/or activities for each of the author's books featured. These lessons will stress the particular interest of the author and the author and you (the teacher) will build a collaborative instructional relationship using the material provided. Each book is written by the featured author or in close collaboration with the author. Using family photographs, reminiscences, anecdotes and stories, Toni Buzzeo relates her lifelong preparation to become a writer. The book features wonderful insights into the creation of her picture books for children and interesting creative lesson activities to use with students. Grades K-6.
