

Common Core Teacher Smart Goals

Cultural Literacy for the Common Core Bonnie M.

Davis 2014-07-08 Build your cultural literacy while inspiring deep, thoughtful, unbiased thinking in students. Discover a six-step framework for becoming culturally literate that complements the Common Core and encourages students to be at the center of learning. Explore how to develop teacher-student relationships, engage in collaborative conversations, and encourage feedback to give voice to the increasingly diverse student body found in today's classrooms

Organizing for Learning

Herbert J. Walberg 1989 In this monograph, 13 authors offer their perspectives on the essential components of good schools. One interesting commonality is the tension expressed between institutional structure and personal values. Another issue that surfaces centers on the rising expectations of society for school achievement and the need for making learning more student specific. Titles and authors of the articles are as follows: (1) "Diverse Practice, Shared Ideas: The Essential School" (Theodore R.Sizer); (2) "James Madison High School" (William J. Bennett); (3) "Site-Managed Schools" (John J. Lane and Herbert J. Walberg); (4) "One Model for Effective Educational Reform" (Arthur Steller); (5) "Value-Driven Schools: The Amoeba Theory" (Thomas J. Sergiovanni); (6) "Organizational Arrangements at Effective Secondary Schools" (Daniel U. Levine and Eugene E. Eubanks); (7) "Paradigm High School" (Mary Anne Raywid); (8) "A Restructured School" (Joe Nathan); (9) "An Information Age School" (Robert St. Clair); (10) "Personalized Education" (James W. Keefe); (11) "The Computerization of Schools"

(Dustin H. Heuston); (12) "A School for 2088" (Fenwick W. English); and (13) "Multiple Perspectives on Organizing for Learning" (John J. Lane and Herbert J. Walberg). (SI)

The Power of SMART Goals

Anne Conzemius 2009-04-01 Help staff focus on results, and implement SMART (Strategic and specific, Measurable, Attainable, Results based, and Time bound) goals to transform your school into a place where every student meets or exceeds standards. The authors present four success stories from real SMART schools and several frameworks for adult and student goal setting that lead to real results.

The Common Core Coaching

Book Laurie Elish-Piper 2014-04-10 This book provides essential coaching tools to support teachers in planning and implementing instruction aligned with the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). The authors explain the key instructional shifts brought about by the CCSS in K-5 English language arts classrooms. Eighteen specific strategies for coaching large groups, small groups, and individual teachers are presented, including clear-cut procedures, vivid illustrative examples, and 28 reproducible forms. Grounded in research on adult learning, the book addresses common coaching challenges and how to overcome them. The large-size format facilitates photocopying; purchasers also get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials.

Creative Activities for Young Children Mary Mayesky 2006
In this very special book, teachers, parents and care givers will be exposed to hundreds of age-appropriate activities for young children through grade 5—all aimed at promoting creativity through art activities across the curriculum. The author presents a wealth of information about developing creativity in children and in their adult educators with such activities as art and food recipes, finger plays, and poems and through the use of such resources as book and software lists, advice for choosing children's books, hundreds of resource Web sites and much more. Readers will appreciate the sound theoretical base presented for the hundreds of practical activities designed to encourage creativity in children and their educators. ?This One's for You? and ?Think About It? sections make the text more interesting by expanding coverage to related, thought-provoking research in early childhood education. This book is a must have for those looking to bring creativity to young children in a very engaging way.

Goal Writing for the Speech-Language Pathologist and Special Educator Gozdziwski

2018-01-12 Geared for undergraduate and graduate students, Goal Writing for the Speech-Language Pathologist and Special Educator details different types of goals, essential elements of goals, how to establish goals from information garnered from evaluations, and how to write continuing goals for the field of Speech-Language Pathology and Communication Sciences.

It is written for students in a Clinical Methods/Clinical Practicum course who are about to begin their clinical experience in SLP. Real-world exercises are provided throughout in order to provide realistic examples of what students may encounter in speech and hearing clinics, hospitals, and schools. Goal writing is practiced by SLPs on a daily basis, and understanding how to turn diagnostic information into therapy is a difficult, yet crucial, task. This important subject is not covered in depth in other clinical methods titles yet is a skill all students and clinicians must master.

Secondary School Teaching

Richard Dean Kellough 1999

Focusing specifically on teaching in grades 7-12, this comprehensive resource guide/workbook involves readers interactively -- through discussions, exercises, vignettes, and case studies -- with the why, what, how, and how well of a performance-based, competency-based, criterion-referenced approach to teaching. Explores instructional planning, strategy implementation, discipline, legal issues, and both student and teacher evaluation.

Reflects the latest developments in cognitive learning theory, the constructivist approach to learning, social/interactive learning, the current school funding environment, and the growing diversity of the student population.

Emphasizes an eclectic model of teaching which encourages readers to choose effective approaches from a variety of possible teaching models.

Connects strategies rather than teaching them as separate entities. For prospective secondary school teachers (grades 7-12).
