180 Masterpieces of World Literature

(Vol.1) Jules Verne 2023-11-16 180

Masterpieces of World Literature (Vol.1) is an ambitious anthology that captures the essence of global literary heritage by assembling a versatile collection of works spanning multiple genres, epochs, and regions. This volume invites readers to traverse through the corridors of human thought, encountering the fantastical inventions of Jules Verne, the introspective poetry of John Keats, and the philosophical discourses of Plato. The editors have meticulously curated this selection to showcase the sweeping canvass of world literature wherein fiction, poetry, essays, and philosophical treatises contribute to an astounding tapestry of thematic explorations from the absurdity of life to the intricacies of human nature. Each composition stands as a testament to the powerful intercultural dialogues that literature fosters across time and space. Contributors to this volume have been pivotal in shaping the literary landscapes of their respective eras and beyond, embedding their works within cultural, philosophical, and socio-political movements that continue to influence contemporary dialogues. The collection bridges the chasm between the romantic musings of the Brontë sisters, the revolutionary critiques of Frederick Douglass, and the modernist innovations of James Joyce, manifesting a rich diversity of voices that transcends national and linguistic barriers. Whether anchoring their narratives in reimaginations of classical myths or confronting the realities of their own cultural milieus, the authors present a cohesive yet variegated exploration of the universal human experience. This anthology is indispensable for those seeking to delve into the varied vistas of world literature woven together in one expansive volume. Expertly navigating the complexities of multiple literary traditions, this collection offers a compelling educational experience, inviting readers to engage with the cultural dialogues and stylistic nuances intrinsic to each piece. 180 Masterpieces of World Literature (Vol.1) serves as both a passport to diverse literary worlds and a mirror reflecting the multifaceted nature of human creativity and thought—a must-read for anyone eager to understand the quintessence of world literature.

A Dance with Demons Sir Richard Alexander 2018-12-02 Man may try to control evil and use it to his own ends, but evil does not follow the whims of man. What starts as a war of humanity changes into something more sinister, when one side summons underworld creatures to fight for them. They soon find that such monsters can't be so easily controlled. Follow the few who stand against the hoards of the underworld. Will they be able to stop what seems the inevitable fall of the human race, or will they fail, will they die trying? This is a story of love and hate, monsters and men. A tale that will reveal if humanity and the bonds that tie them together, are enough to hold the evil at bay.

Butoh and Suzuki Performance in Australia Jonathan W. Marshall 2025-01-20 In Butoh and Suzuki Performance in Australia: Bent Legs on Strange Grounds, 1982-2023, Marshall considers how the originally Japanese forms of butoh dance and Suzuki's theatre reconfigure historical lineages to find ancient yet transcultural ancestors within Australia and beyond. Marshall argues that artists working in Australia with butoh and Suzuki techniques develop conflicted yet compelling diasporic, multicultural, spiritually and corporeally compelling interpretations of theatrical practice. Marshall puts at the centre of butoh historiography the work of Tess de Quincey, Yumi Umiumare, Tony Yap, Lynne Bradley, Simon Woods, Frances Barbe, and Australian Suzuki practitioners Jacqui Carroll and John Nobbs. Jonathan W. Marshall's Bent Legs on Strange Grounds is an important contribution to the body of literature on butoh, as well as to studies of dance in Australia that will be valuable to practitioners and scholars alike. Detailed discussions of Australian butoh artists open up consideration of how global and local histories, migrations, and landscapes not only were key to butoh's formation in Japan, but also to its continued development around the world. Attention to butoh's emplacement in Australia, Marshall convincingly argues, reveals insights about national identity, race, power, and more that are relevant well beyond the Australian performance context. — Rosemary Candelario, Texas Woman's University, co-editor, Routledge Companion to Butoh Performance (2018) Marshall's Bent Legs on Strange Grounds explores the remarkable transformative era of Australia's reconsideration of its place in the region. A definitive study of Australian experiments in butoh and the theatrical vision of Suzuki Tadashi, the book shows how new corporeal and spatial dramaturgies of the Japanese avant-garde fundamentally changed Australian performance. Expansively researched and annotated, this impressive study connects Australian performance after the New Wave with globalization, postmodern dance, Indigeneity, and subcultures, and it details the work of leading Australian/Asian artists. Bent Legs on Strange Grounds speaks about the development of embodied knowledge and the consequential refiguration of Australia's sense of being in the world. It is also a study of butoh and Suzuki's legacy in global terms, wherein Australian experimental performance also becomes something larger than itself. — Peter Eckersall, The Graduate Center, CUNY, author of Performativity and Event in 1960s Japan (2013). The Etude 1907 A monthly journal for the musician, the music student, and all music lovers.
