Hotels/restaurants/institutions Dunnovan L.

Sapienza 1977 Abstract: Theories, principles, techniques and practices from the fields of business management, accounting, personnel, marketing, psychology, sociology and education are used to formulate approaches, systems and analytical tools designed to make food service and lodging organizations more efficient and effective. The readings are a compilation of current and historical viewpoints that reflect concerns of food service and lodging students, instructors or experienced workers, in-service trainees or board members. Key ideas and readings are included for general management, organization, communication, control, human relations, personnel management, professionalism, sales and promotion and industry trends.

Accounting and Finance: Understanding and Practice Neeta Shah 2025-01-15 Now in its fifth edition, Accounting and Finance: Understanding and Practice has been fully updated to align with the latest International Financial Reporting Standards. It offers expanded coverage on the core areas of teaching relevant to students studying introductory courses in Accounting and Finance. Ample practical examples, updated case studies, and end-of-chapter questions help students easily relate accounting and finance to the business world. Key features: The text is organized in three parts: financial accounting, financial management, and management accounting. New chapter on Sustainability – a growing area of research within accounting and business. Enhanced discussion on corporate governance, and fair value accounting. Numerous up-to-date references to businesses and well-known companies throughout. Running case study on Marks & Spencer across every chapter to highlight the relevance of each topic to a real-world example. Updated Accounting in Context case studies exemplify issues discussed in each chapter featuring real companies such as Watches of Switzerland, Benevolent AI and Shein.
