

Bible Study Manual

Bible Study Manual Pastor Messian Esaie 2020-07-07 It is with great pleasure and honor that I personally thank you for obtaining this book. I believe the Word of God (Bible) is the only source for absolute divine authority, and the Holy Spirit's influence in our understanding and applying God's Word in our daily lives is key. The Word of God is totally authoritative and unfailing. During a very long course of years in ministry, I have had occasion to study the Bible and to read commentaries and reviews. I taught in Sunday school, Bible study classes, and in two Bible colleges. I have always been fascinated with teaching the Bible. I came to understand that studying the Word of God is a vital discipline in the life of a Christian. However, it occurs to me that prayer meetings and Bible Study meetings are the least attended program in many local churches. So, I asked myself a question. "What are the reasons why Christians do not dedicate their time and energy to studying God's Word?" I found the answers:

First, the lack of fun in learning while studying Bible is one of the factors. Second, the topics are not as challenging and exciting as many may think. This manual is designed to challenge your knowledge and comprehension of the scriptures while you have fun exploring the biblical principles of the Bible. The manual is designed to give you a structure to break up your Bible study into manageable series. Each series will take you a month to complete, but some will take more based on the depth and maturity of your audiences. This manual can also be used as personal devotional book, as it contains the total truth necessary for living. The main aim of this manual is to assist you in studying the Bible and help you build a firm foundation for your faith. This manual also helps you to avoid theological error as we study to prepare ourselves for disciple-making, ministry, and service. 1 Timothy 4:16 admonishes, "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee."

Expository Bible Study Manual Vol. 2 Helen Agama 2021-01-27 The Bible is a Book about God's love for man, and man's journey back to God, his Creator. Almost every recorded event and experience in the Bible carries with it, an underpinning of God's love either allegorically or presented in parables. The value of each soul is epitomised in the search for just one. The rigours and depth of God's love for man characterises man's worth to God. To have fellowship with God, and share with Him, in His glory, is God's will for all. Jesus died to save all. The Bible is the greatest and enduring love story ever written, filled with hidden treasures unknown, yet so compelling. It is the love story of a Man who died to save the life of a friend who did not know Him. I hope I am able to articulate His love in this Bible Study Manual and hopefully gain your trust in accepting His invitation today. 'Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' Matthew 11:28. God bless you!

Disciple I Becoming Disciples Through Bible Study: Study Manual Richard B. Wilke 2010-09-01 DISCIPLE is a program of disciplined

Bible study aimed at developing strong Christian leaders. The study gives the Old and New Testaments equal time, emphasizing the wholeness of the Bible as a revelation of God. DISCIPLE draws upon the work of scholars, the personal Bible reading and study of the participant, and dynamic group discussion to aid understanding of the Bible. The first study in the program is DISCIPLE: BECOMING DISCIPLES THROUGH BIBLE STUDY, a thirty-four week overview of the entire Bible. Commitment and Time Involved Three and one-half to four hours of independent study each week (40 minutes daily for leaders and 30 minutes daily for group members) in preparation for weekly group meetings. Attendance at weekly 2.5 hour meetings. Study Manual Each member of the group needs a study manual and a Bible. The Bible is the text for the study and the study manual will guide group members in their study and preparation for the weekly group session. The study manual also includes suggestions for individual and study-related activities. Space is provided for taking notes while reading Scripture, for recording thoughts and questions arising out of daily study, and for notes during the weekly group session. The titles of the sessions along with theme words and theme verses, and major persons, events, and topics will set the sequence of the biblical story in the minds of the participants. Disciple III Remember Who You Are: Study Manual Richard

B. Wilke 2010-09-01 The Disciple III Remember Who

You Are: Study Manual combines direction and information enabling study of the text - the Bible. Two titles in the commentary section of the manual reflect ideas central to the prophets and Paul's letters. "The Word of the Lord" picks up a familiar phrase from the prophets - a clear statement of their calling: They spoke (and speak) for God. Each member of the group needs a study manual and a Bible. The Bible is the text for the study and the study manual will guide group members in their study and preparation for the weekly group session. The study manual also includes suggestions for individual research and study-related activities. Space is provided for taking notes while reading Scripture, for recording thoughts and questions arising out of daily study, and for notes during the weekly group session. The titles of the sessions along with theme words and theme verses, and major persons, events, and topics will set the sequence of the biblical story in the minds of the participants. The principal Scripture for each session follows the chronological movement of the biblical story. Disciple III Remember Who You Are is the third study in the four-phase DISCIPLE program. The driving idea in this study is the connection between memory and identity as the people of God. The word You in the title is meant to be heard both in its singular form (the individual) and its plural form (the community). We are a community of memory. Participants in this 32 week study will read the major and minor Old Testament prophets, with the exception of Daniel, and will read the thirteen Letters traditionally attributed to Paul. To establish the historical context in which the prophets spoke for God, daily reading assignments draw also on the books of Deuteronomy through Chronicles. Several themes weave their way through the study - the call to remember; the call to repentance; the need for renewed vision; and the place of community. The prophets and Paul are continually calling hearers and readers back to their God and to a sense of who they are as a people "set apart." Commitment and Time Involved 32 week study Three and one-half to four hours of independent study each week (40 minutes daily for leaders and 30 minutes daily for group members) in preparation for weekly group meetings. Attendance at weekly 2.5 hour meetings

Christian Believer Study Manual J. Ellsworth Kalas 1999-07 The study manual guides daily reading in Scripture and in the Book of Readings. It encourages daily prayer while providing space for taking notes for use in weekly group discussion. Each lesson includes an explanation and commentary on the doctrines being studied, raises questions for reader reflection and written response, and suggests ideas for additional reading and study. The Christian Believer program focuses on classical teachings of the Christian faith-- presenting, explaining, and interpreting them in a way that participants can understand, through the use of words, symbols, and hymns. Over a 30-week period, participants will examine the writings of ancient and modern Christian commentators and view video presentations by leading Bible scholars.
