Teacher-Researcher Collaborations as Contexts for Learning Susan R Goldman

2025-09-26 Collaborative design in which both teachers and researchers participate can be a powerful context for capacity- and knowledge-building. However, typically the focus is on what and how teachers learn in co-design efforts. As important is how researchers learn through co-design with teachers. Co-design is an expansive learning context because it juxtaposes goals, purposes, and outcomes of multiple participants and communities. Emergent tensions expand opportunities for learning of all participants and communities. The chapters in this volume exemplify a range of co-design contexts and thereby illuminate different expansive learning contexts for teachers and researchers. This book was originally published as a special issue of Cognition and Instruction.

This volume brings together all aspects of assessment and management into a main resource for understanding the complex physiological and clinical consequences of this condition. - Provides one page chapter summaries that cover epidemiology, physiology and treatment options - Presents an easy to use reference on obesity hypoventilation syndrome, including symptoms - Contains chapters with detailed discussions of topics, including color images, graphs and tables that summarize current research

Let There Be Light! Robert S. Dutch 2017-06-16 Have you ever wondered what it is like to work on a nuclear power plant? Robert Dutch worked in the UK's nuclear industry for many years as a scientist and then as a tutor at a nuclear training center. He also holds degrees in theology. Drawing upon his qualifications and experience Robert addresses the controversial issue of nuclear power from a Christian perspective. In contrast to a negative nuclear narrative often portrayed, he presents a positive nuclear narrative alongside other ways of generating electricity. Be prepared to be challenged to think seriously about nuclear's merits in providing clean, low-carbon electricity.
