2026-03-23 When I became a Realtor, I knew absolutely nothing – just like many others starting out. To survive, I filled a massive notebook with tips, reminders, and hard-earned lessons. At one point, I joked that I should turn it into a book. So I did. This guide doesn't dive very deep into every subject; instead, it's more like a roadmap. I can point you toward the destination, but what you do when you arrive will depend on the situation. Every client, transaction, and market is different; that's the reality of real estate. What this book does give you is direction. It's enough to help you find your footing, build confidence, and know you're not wandering through the business alone. My hope is simple: that new agents can open these pages, feel a little steadier, and say, "I can do this." Because you can. And we're all rooting for you.
