S.T.E.M. as An Early Start for Students, Parents and Teachers Using Educational Leadership to Build an Effective 2020 Model

Dr. Mary J. Ferguson, Ed.D. Forward by: Dr. Anne E. Weiss, Ph.D 2020-06-17 S.T.E.M. as An Early Start for Students, Parents and Teachers Using Educational Leadership to Build an Effective 2020 Model By: Dr. Mary J. Ferguson This book is designed to give the visual STEM framework to individuals, families and organizations within local, state or national entities, to guide them with academic program

design or individual participation involving students as early as Pre-K all the way through twelfth grade. The content was tested and designer in a charter and a public school sector. Exercising this design proved that early STEM involvement has been proven to allow younger students to begin with confidence when performing through learning science, technology, engineering and math. This read should target parents, teachers and students and show them the importance of federal, state and local collaboration. The benefits of this read will also reveal organizational information for independent application to local schools, students and businesses. Finally, when reading this book a sense of independent research is promoted outside the walls of schools using research technology, emails r simply by picking up your cell phone and contact any STEM or government agency to begin your knowledge-base of STEMology.
