Luther Hartmann Grisar 1915

The Devil's Cocktail Alexander Wilson 1928

The History of All Religions William Burder 1872

The Plays of Miracle & Wonder Brett Bailey 2003 From a truly groundbreaking voice in African theater, these three plays have disturbed and transported audiences in South Africa and abroad with their depictions of some uncomfortable episodes in South African history. From witch hunts in Kokstad and the saga of King Hintsa's skull to the prophecies of Nongqawuse and the ensuing cattle-killing crisis, these plays touch on shared neuroses and fears, blending the tragic and transcendent with the farcical. With accompanying essays and working notes, the playwright gives background and insight into each of the productions and outlines his own artistic development and vision. This richly designed book re-creates something of the funky energy, haunting magic, and colorful imagery of the plays themselves.

That mankind is unable by his own effort to attain the God-kind of Holiness. the Mosaic Law was not given to accord righteousness to mankind but to reveal sin and point people to the Messiah Jesus Christ who would come and fulfil the demands of the Law. Faith in Jesus is the central point in pleasing God who accepts the sinner who believes not because of what he has done but what Jesus did. the devil's many ways of deception are revealed.
