The Pocket Idiot's Guide to Satellite Radio Damon Brown 2006 We all have our favourite radio stations- the ones we listen to each morning on the way to work or school, at night as we relax or get ready to go out. But when we travel too far from the signal, we wind up with static, and find ourselves scanning through countless stations to find something-anything-to listen to. With satellite radio, however, our favourite stations are available to us from one end of the country to the other, playing the music or talk shows we like 24 hours a day, 7 days a week . . . all virtually uninterrupted by commercials. The Pocket Idiot's Guide to Satellite Radioprovides an essential introduction to the world of satellite radio. Whether you're considering making the purchase and are confused by the options and equipment available or are already a user looking for installation guidance and tips and tricks for getting the most out of your purchase, this book is designed to help you navigate through the sometimes-complicated world of satellite radio.

Chapman Living and Working Onboard Dave Kelley 2004 A first-person account of onboard life with photos and how-to information. Thinking of taking up full-time residence on a boat? Dave Kelley, the former Executive Editor of Boating World magazine, offers an instructive and enjoyable first-person account of onboard life, complete with photos. Aided by his wife, who provides a woman's perspective, and by his dogs and cat (who "address" a pet's concerns), Kelley discusses all the important considerations involved in opting for a home port. Find out how to choose the right boat, set up an office, adjust to the limited space, establish a routine, and prepare float plans. Prepare yourself for the costs and special challenges involved in marina life. Interviews with those who have lived at sea reveal why some have returned to land-and why others will never become landlubbers again. • Advertising in Boating magazines
