Profiles of American Colleges Barron's Educational Series 2010-07-01 The latest information on enrollments, tuition and fees, academic programs, campus environment, available financial aid, and much more make the 29th edition of Profiles of American Colleges America's most comprehensive and authoritative source for college-bound high school students. Every accredited four-year college in the United States is profiled, and readers are directed to a brand-new Barron's Web site featuring a FREE ACCESS college search engine that presents exclusive on-line information to help students match their academic plans and aptitudes with the admission requirements and academic programs of each school. The book presents profiles of more than 1,650 colleges, each profile including details on:

- Admission requirements
- Library and computer facilities
- Admissions procedures for freshmen
- Campus safety and security
- Thumbnail descriptions of faculty
- Requirements for a degree
- Athletic facilities
- Extracurricular activities
- E-mail addresses
- College fax numbers and web sites
- Admissions

Contacts • and more Schools are rated according to Barron's reliable competitiveness scale, which ranges from "Noncompetitive" to "Most Competitive." The book's tinted pages section presents an Index of College Majors that lists all available major study programs at every school. Also profiled are excellent colleges in Canada and several other countries, as well as brief profiles of religious colleges, and American colleges based in foreign countries.

Judique On The Job Allan MacDonald

2021-11-09 Judique on the Job: The Long Road to My Career is a lighthearted memoir detailing the author's experiences growing up on Cape Breton Island, travelling, partying, and his never-ending trials and tribulations trying to find a career that would be satisfying on all levels. In his search, the author had about eighty different jobs, many of them unique and interesting. With a friendly and folksy tone, the book takes the reader on a tour of his adventures in employment, including work in correctional services, automobile repossession, student recruitment, and the military. The author also gives us the inside scoop on working as a film extra, rickshaw runner, doorman, and working numerous positions in the hospitality industry. The book will inspire and reassure younger readers struggling to find success and happiness in their work lives. It will also appeal to anyone with a sense of humour and an appreciation for a good story filled with joie de vivre. The book's unique title was inspired by a spirited local saying in Judique, Cape Breton Island: "Judique on the floor!" The expression is well known in the area, but its certain origin is not. As Judique was long thought to have the best step dancers in the area, if a Judique native stepped onto the dance floor, people would shout "Judique on the floor!" to alert other dancers they might as well throw in the towel. There is a second part to the story, where apparently Judiquers also liked to fight, so if they were not in the mood to dance, someone would sound the battle cry: "Judique on the floor! Who will dare put us off?" and one or more fisticuffs would ensue. This bit of local colour makes for an apt moniker for this unique and humorous tale.

Profiles of American Colleges with CD-ROM

Barron's Educational Series, 2006-07-01 Up-to-date information on enrollments, tuition and fees, academic programs, campus environment, available financial aid, and much more, combine to make 27th edition of Profiles of American Colleges America's most authoritative source for information on colleges and universities.

College-bound students, parents, and high school guidance counselors will find information on more than 1,650 accredited four-year colleges across the United States. A CD-ROM enclosed with each copy of this comprehensive directory presents an interactive format and lets students find individual schools by entering specific criteria. In addition to the above-cited information, each college profile gives details on admission requirements, library and computer facilities, athletic facilities, extracurricular activities, e-mail addresses, fax numbers, web sites, and more. Schools are rated according to Barron's famous competitiveness scale, from "Noncompetitive" to "Most Competitive." The book's extra section of tinted pages presents a complete, quick-reference Index of College Majors—listing all available major study programs at each school. Also profiled are many of the best-known colleges in Canada and several other countries.

The Business School Buzz Book Carolyn C. Wise 2007 In this updated guide, Vault publishes the entire surveys of current students and alumni at more than 100 top business schools. Each 4- to 5-page entry is composed almost entirely of insider comments from students and alumni. Each school profile features surveys of about 10 students or alumni. These narratives provide applicants with detailed and balanced perspectives and insider information on admissions and employment prospects, which is lacking in other business school guides.

The College Board College Handbook

College Entrance Examination Board 2007-06

Presents information on enrollment, fields of study, admission requirements, expenses, and student activities at two- and four-year colleges.

Profiles of American Colleges -- 2008 Barron's Educational Series, 2008-07-01 Up-to-date facts and figures on enrollments, tuition and fees, academic programs, campus environment, available financial aid, and much more make the 28th edition of Profiles of American Colleges America's most authoritative data source for college-bound high school students, their parents, and high school guidance counselors. More than 1,650 accredited four-year colleges are profiled. An interactive CD-ROM enclosed with the directory guides students to specific schools when they enter details describing their personal academic plans and aptitudes. In addition to the above-cited information, each college profile gives details on:

- Admission requirements
- Library and computer facilities
- Admissions procedures for freshmen
- Campus safety and security
- Thumbnail descriptions of faculty
- Requirements for a degree

- and much more

Schools are rated according to Barron's well-known competitiveness scale, from "Noncompetitive" to "Most Competitive." Unlike some other publications, Barron's refrains from the unreliable practice of ranking colleges on a first-through-last basis. The book's tinted pages section presents a quick-reference Index of College Majors that lists all available major study programs at each school. Also profiled are many excellent colleges in Canada and several other countries, as well as brief profiles of religious colleges, and American colleges based in foreign countries.

Barron's Profiles of American Colleges 1986
