A recent study highlights exactly how far the sprawling, car-dominated US has fallen behind cities around the world when it comes to public transportation. The proportion of American adults who are employed or actively looking for a job was always going to shrink over the next decade as the labor force as a whole ages. The US Department of State has designated 23 Nigerian states as “Do Not Travel” areas in an updated advisory, warning American citizens of escalating security risks across Nigeria. The agency’s Domestic Investigations and Operations Guide, most recently updated last year, calls for special care when core rights of expression are involved, such as in organized protests. Stay updated with the latest international news, sports results, technology updates, entertainment stories, photos, and videos on MSN. Civics is the study of the rights and responsibilities of citizens, the history of democracy and the ways that the U.S. government is designed to function. Harvard University will offer a free online course for every U.S. citizen covering basic U.S. government, understanding the Constitution and "How to Recognize a Dictatorship Takeover 101." Congress voted to reopen the government in a bill signed by Trump, ending the longest government shutdown in US history. Mejia, who is of Filipino ancestry, became the first Asian American to hold citywide elected office in Los Angeles. Although some professors host course materials on separate websites, she said critical resources, lecture videos, notes and study documents, are often stored within the platform. Just read this presidential proclamation with an open mind, and try to envision how you would feel about it if this happened in another country or if any other American leader had said it.
