Just a Click Away Barbara K. Kaye 2001 This book examines online advertising its robust past, amazing present, and likely future directions. From its modest beginnings, advertising on the Internet quickly has become a multibillion dollar business. This text discusses the power and potential of the Internet as an advertising medium and focuses on how the Internet can be utilized best to deliver effective messages. Just a Click Away: Advertising on the Internet is the first in a series of three books that look at various aspects of mass communication and the Internet (the other two books, on broadcasting and public relations, will be published in the next two years). An accompanying website (www.abacon.com/kaye) provides further information and updates material in this ever-changing field.

The World Wide Web Barbara K. Kaye 1999 Provides information on how different media domains, from TV to public relations, are using the Internet for both marketing and content purposes. The authors look at using the Web for research, the growth of Internet radio, television and the Web, news and sports on the Web, and the theoretical considerations and social implications of the trends being discussed. Includes sample screens taken from the Web, a glossary, and addresses for the media sites discussed. Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR

The Information Specialist's Guide to Searching and Researching on the Internet and the World Wide Web Ernest C. Ackermann 1999 This work is aimed at librarians who wish to use the Internet for research prospects and employs an interactive approach that blends concepts with learning activities. It covers basic browser usage, e-mail, and discussion groups and FTP and Usenet groups
