Confessions of a Girlpreneur Fiona Gilligan 2014-10-15 It takes a lot to survive in today's business world, but one thing it doesn't take is a Y chromosome. Women are a vital and valuable part of our local economies and are just as capable of achieving success as men...and Confessions of a GirlPRENEUR provides proof positive of this fact. A remarkable story of how an entrepreneur and single mother beat the odds and created an industry-leading start-up in a highly competitive market where many others failed, this engaging book - part business guide, part memoir - traces the unlikely path Fiona Gilligan, MSW, took to found her company, the Trauma Management Group, and shows how she led it to dominate the trauma care industry in Canada over the course of fifteen years. How did she do it? Confessions of a GirlPreneur recounts her trailblazing journey and offers invaluable business tips, information, and inspiration, as well as touching and entertaining personal anecdotes. It's a must-read for aspiring entrepreneurs, especially women, and is a particularly empowering gift for girls.

Confessions of a Mompreneur Janette Gleason 2013-01-01 In this book, Janette Gleason reveals details of her stressed-out life as a stay-at-home mom with three young children, shares the pain of the discovery that her son has autism, and confesses the struggles to keep her family-owned small business afloat. Yearning for more, Janette wanted to gain control of her life and to find a more fulfilling sense of purpose. She recounts the defining moment that changed her life forever and recognizes the software company that gave her the tools, knowledge, and support she needed to find her true passion. As she entered into the role of Mompreneur, Janette expresses her joy in having the best of both worlds as a successful entrepreneur and the mother she always desired to be.

The "Girl" Entrepreneurs 2008 'My intent is to document the experiences of African business women in terms of their background, their start-up stage, their growth pattern, their challenges, the impact of choices of spouse on their business, their work-life balance, and their future plans. My vision is to create a document to inspire other women as well as celebrate the women.' Having said that, Ibukun Awosika set out to take on a number of female entrepreneurs who have succeeded in carving a niche for themselves in the business world, and profiled their stories for the benefits of other women who aspire to do same in the first volume of her book The "Girl" Entrepreneurs: Our Stories So Far... In this book, you will get to read what the motivations, the challenges, and the strategies of these women are. You will also be acquainted with how the contributions of other people, such as their spouses, parents and family, have helped towards their achievement of success. IBUKUN AWOSIKA is an accomplished entrepreneur and an ordained pastor at The Fountain of Life Church. She is the Founder of Christian Missionary Funds, a non-governmental body whose main objective is to support and raise funds for Christian missionaries in different parts of Nigeria. She is the host of a popular TV programme, Business His Way, where she shares ethical business values and principles, distilled from the Word of God, with the business community in Nigeria and neighbouring West African countries. She is the happy wife of Abiodun Awosika and the joyous mother of Oludola, Olafusika, and Olamiposi.

Girl in Glass Deanna Fei 2015-07-14 Deanna Fei was just five-and-a-half months pregnant when she inexplicably went into labor. Minutes later, she met her tiny baby who clung to life support inside a glass box. Fei was forced to confront terrifying issues: How to be the mother of a child she could lose at any moment. Whether her daughter would survive another day--and whether she should. But as she watched her daughter fight for her life, Fei discovered the power of the mother-child bond at its most elemental. A year after she brought her daughter home from the hospital, the CEO of AOL--her husband's employer--set off a national firestorm about the children he had called "distressed babies." By blaming the beautiful, miraculously healthy little girl for a cut in employee benefits, he attached a price tag to her life. Girl in Glass is the riveting story of one child's harrowing journey and a powerful distillation of parenthood. With incandescent prose and an unflinching eye, Fei explores the value of a human life: from the spreadsheets wielded by cost-cutting executives to the insidious notions of risk surrounding modern pregnancy; from the wondrous history of medical innovation in the care of premature infants to contemporary analyses of what their lives are worth; and finally, to the depths of her own struggle to make sense of her daughter's arrival in the world. Above all, Girl in Glass is a luminous testament to how love takes hold when a birth defies our fundamental beliefs about how life is supposed to begin.

Living the Girlpreneur Life: Yes, It's Time! Tammie T. Polk 2019-03-11 There is NO SUCH THING as being too young to build and run your own business! In this short book on building a business, author Tammie T. Polk challenges all young girls with a vision to do something with it! She talks about everything from knowing who YOU are as a person to what to do with your millions of ideas you have. This book is for the girl who wants the world, but doesn't yet know how to get started. She knows she should be doing SOMETHING, but needs help with what that something is and what it can turn into!

Confessions of a Ceo Mum Danielle Stephens 2019-02-27 Kari Burke and Danielle Stephens have built a multimillion dollar online business, but mixing and influencing other business-minded women has been their biggest achievement to date. Confessions of a CEO Mum is a story of how two ordinary Australians relied on passion, grit, and dedication to become successful businesswomen, and how if they can do it, anyone can. Both believe that with hard work, determination, and a willingness to be open to new opportunities, everyday mothers can have it all: health, wealth, family, and style. Learn how to: • spot and embrace new opportunities; • appreciate the power of network marketing; • build the confidence you need to be a CEO; and • find a balance between working and being at home. If you find yourself worrying about what your credit card bill will be at the end of each month, are skipping meals out, or are unable to give your family all that it deserves—or if you just want more—it's time to make a change. Join two mums as they share what it took to build a business that pays them more in a single month than they used to earn in an entire year.

Confessions of a Millennial Go-Getter Ashley King 2018-09-18

Confessions of a Millennial Go-Getter is a collection of stories from female entrepreneurs that have overcome adversity, faced their fears and are blazing the trail of entrepreneurship. All the things that were meant to detour them from success only made them stronger. These stories are about every day women, just like you, that had to push aside excuses not to and just get it done. These are stories to encourage and inspire women who feel as if it's too late or too many obstacles to overcome can find strength from these stories. From this book you will learn that: -Faith without action is useless. No matter how much you hope and pray for your dreams to come to fruition, if you do not take action, nothing will happen. -Dreams come to life with a vision, plan, proper mindset and execution. -Sometimes it's not always about strategy but taking that four minute leap that will change the rest of your life. Stop reading this and purchase the book already! These stories will ignite women that are sitting on the sideline watching everyone achieve their dreams.

Girl On Fire: How to Choose Yourself, Burn the Rule Book, and Blaze Your Own Trail in Life and Business Cara Alwill Leyba 2019-11-08 From the bestselling author of Girl Code, Cara Alwill Leyba delivers Girl on Fire -the long-awaited follow up fans have been waiting for. The self-publishing queen started this conversation four years ago with Girl Code, her ode to women and their power, a book so successful that it has been translated in seven languages and continues to make a major impact on the world. Girl On Fire builds on this concept and shows you how to blaze your own trail immediately. You don't need permission from anyone to live fearlessly and start living your dream. As an early voice in the female-driven movement, Cara continues to be a leader in the space, liberating women to trust their intuition and create their own opportunities. She empowers her readers to stop waiting for their big break and, instead, to publish their own books, start their own podcasts, host their own panels and design their own clothing lines; whatever their desires are. From the author: Who would you be if you stopped following their rules? What would you create if you create if you had nothing holding you back? Now that women entrepreneurs are banding together in sisterhood and realizing the importance of collaboration over competition, it's time to take things to the next level. It's time to rise up, together, and challenge the status quo. It's time to question the way things have been done in the past, to write our own rules, and do life and business OUR way. The world needs us, as women, to utilize our voices now more than ever. We must step into our power and we must let nothing hold us back. Business is changing rapidly, and there has never been a better time to choose yourself. Gone are the days of waiting to be chosen by an agent, a record label, a company, or a publisher. Successful entrepreneurs don't wait for their "big break" -they create it. They don't wait to be featured in a magazine, or picked up by a publisher, or given a chance to speak on a stage. They promote themselves on platforms they create, they self-publish their own books, they launch their own podcasts, they create their own events and build their own stages. Now is the time to show up for ourselves. We all have the ability to design a life and career beyond our wildest imaginations without permission, selection, or validation. Girl on Fire will show you how to do it. This book is for every woman who has had a vision that others might not understand. It's for every woman who is sick and tired of playing by the rules. It's for every woman who has known she was meant for more and has waited far too long for someone to give her the permission she thought she needed.
