The Truth About Style

Deluxe Stacy London

2012-10-02 This deluxe e-book edition of The Truth about Style features 30 minutes of video, including an introduction by Stacy London and behind-the-scenes footage of the sessions that were the basis for the book, with interviews of the nine women featured and a look at the process by which London transformed each of them. The hilarious, beloved cohost of TLC's What Not to Wear examines the universal obstacles all women—including herself—put in their way With her unique talent for seeing past disastrous wardrobes to the core emotional issues that caused these sartorial crises, style savant Stacy London has transformed not only the looks but also the lives of hundreds of guests who have appeared on What Not to Wear. Now for the first time in print, London turns that expert X-ray insight on herself. Like the women she's transformed, London has plenty of emotional baggage. At eleven, she suffered from severe psoriasis that left her with permanent physical and mental scars. During college, she became anorexic on a misguided quest for perfection. By the time she joined the staff at Vogue, London's weight had doubled from binge eating. Although self-esteem and self-consciousness nearly sabotaged a promising career, London learned the hard way that we wear our insecurities every day. It wasn't until she found the self-confidence to develop a strong personal style that she finally became comfortable in her skin. In The Truth About Style, London shares her own often painful history and her philosophy of the healing power of personal style—illustrating it with a series of detailed “start-overs” with eight real women, demonstrating how personal style helps them overcome the emotional obstacles we all face. For anyone who has ever despaired of finding the right clothes, or even taking an objective assessment in a full-length mirror, The Truth About Style will be an inspiring, liberating, and often very funny guide to finding the expression of your truest self.

Cold Lessons Michael McCulloch 2007 Gil Strickland is a high school teacher in Garden City, Montana. When one of his students crashes her car into a billboard and the dead girl's friend sneezes blood all over her cheerleading uniform, Gil begins to investigate. He uncovers evidence of a cocaine ring that preys on his students, but he's in over his head. Up against gun-toting bad guys, the only weapon he's ever wielded is a red pen. Can he save his students--and himself?

in life that people choose to deal with, when in all reality they dont have to. Everyone deserves to be happy in one way or another, so this is a stepping-stone to what was once, thought of as the undoable. If there is someone in your life and their not making you happy, you have the right book. Its going to be up to you what you get out of reading this book. Its going to boil down to how much strength that you have to move past these weights that you have in your life. If you dont have anything holding you back, this book will show you all the signs to look for to avoid them. So you must understand how to spot and weed them out. Just like a farmer, he goes in and removes the bad weeds and fruit from the good ones. You have to do the same thing. The only difference is the weeds that you are weeding out paint themselves up to look like wonderful weeds, but with the right tools you can still weed them out from the good ones and this book will help you do so. No one deserves to have to put up with nonsense and the good thing is that you dont have to. In order for this to work you to have to admit that you are putting up with nonsense and then you have to take the steps to remove it. If you are in a relationship and youre not happy, youre always arguing and fighting, youre always getting lied to and cheated on, you have the right to move on and be happy. But its up to you to do so. So admit and remove!
