The Ethical and Professional Practice of Counseling and Psychotherapy Len Sperry 2007 In addition to providing foundational information about ethical codes and legal statutes, this new text advocates for counseling personnel to view ethical issues as challenges for personal and professional growth. Written in an accessible, concise and easy to read style, this book endeavors to broaden the traditional focus of ethical study to include topics that students and practicing clinicians will find consistent with their own personal strivings and professional needs. While covering the traditional core concepts of professional ethics in considerable detail: confidentiality, informed consent, boundaries and the use of power, and competency and professional responsibility, it also advocates for counseling personnel to view ethical issues as challenges for personal and professional growth. And, it includes a number of critical topics that counselors and therapists face or will face in daily practice. These include organizational ethics, virtue ethics, and an expanded view of multicultural ethics with a focus on community values as well as on religious and spiritual issues. This new book includes a special chapter in the appendix that emphasizes ways in which counselors and therapists can grow and achieve excellence in their personal and professional lives. Unique and essential coverage of organizational ethics (OE) is addressed making readers aware of how organizational dynamics can exert such powerful influence on ethical decision making (Ch 4 & 10-14). Unique coverage of the ethical considerations involving spiritual and religious issues as well as the use of alternative interventions in counseling and psychotherapy are covered, including the common lawsuits brought against counselors and therapists using spiritual and alternative interventions (Ch 3). A unique section in the appendix describes the psychological and philosophical basis of ethical decision-making for readers who want and need a more in-depth discussion.

Certification & Reciprocity Consortium (IC&RC), SAMHSA's TAP 21 core competencies, and NAADAC's ethical principles, this text equips students to meet state and international certification requirements for addictions counseling. Using a comprehensive case study that follows a client from intake and assessment through discharge, this text integrates core competencies with real-world application. Each chapter identifies the competencies and ethical principles covered within, and is structured to promote the development of knowledge, skills, and attitudes essential for competent practice. Evidence-based strategies are woven throughout, offering practical tools and clinical examples to support each stage of the treatment process. Additional topics include addiction theories, co-occurring disorders, culturally responsive care, DSM diagnosis, placement criteria, documentation, treatment planning, and other behavioral addictions. Two in-depth chapters on pharmacology explore prescription medications (including medication-assisted treatment), synthetic drugs, and herbal substances, highlighting their role in both misuse and treatment. With its clear structure and applied focus, Addictions Counseling is more than a textbook - it's a bridge between academic preparation and professional excellence.

Doing Counseling Jude T. Austin, II 2023-02-03
This pragmatic book explains the "how" of integrating counselor training into practice by bridging the gap between educational knowledge, clinical skill, and counselor identity. Drs. Jude and Julius Austin combine their personal and professional experiences with contributions from other skilled clinicians to break down the counseling process and inspire counselor confidence in the ongoing quest to do counseling well. Following an introduction to basic counseling ethics and several types of sessions, each stage of counseling is explored, including pre-session preparation, meeting the client, building the therapeutic relationship, managing and trusting the process, developing a unique personal style, tracking therapeutic progress, ending therapy, and postsession tasks. The discussion then shifts to getting the most from supervision, competent multicultural/antiracist counseling, and the dos and don'ts of distance counseling. A sole case study is presented throughout the book to illustrate therapeutic techniques, and key takeaways are summarized in an epilogue.
