And the full family appreciated this effort on her part. Times changed, and the joint families started to go nuclear in the 20th and 21st century. Instead of a full family living together and eating together and playing together and praying together, many families started moving away from the main family and setting up their own households.

"Several hundred recipes contributed by readers of the Los Angeles Times as part of a 1905 series of prize recipe contests in the paper. Written in narrative paragraphs, the recipes are given with their contributors' names and addresses. The front cover touts 'Old-Time California, Spanish and Mexican dishes' and 'Recipes of Famous Pioneer Spanish Settlers.' While some of the Spanish dishes may owe more to American fancy than anything else, others are more recognizably authentic. Among the other Spanish- and Mexican-influenced dishes are enchiladas, Spanish rice, albondigas, Creole shrimp, chiles rellenos, and tamale pie"--
