Soweto Pauline Morris 1980 The Urban Foundation, registered as an association not for gain, was established following a conference on the quality of life in urban areas in November 1976, which was attended by many of South Africa's leading businessmen and community leaders. Its objectives are to work with urban residents to improve their quality of life, acting as a catalyst by mobilising the resources of the private sector, involving communities and gaining the co-operation of the authorities. Soweto is the largest urban Black community in South Africa. The Urban Foundation sees its role as one of helping this community solve its problems by bringing it together with the private sector in projects, and by lobbying for appropriate policy and procedure changes at all levels of Government.

Teacher Preparation in South Africa Linda Chisholm 2019-10-09 The book will focus on the emergence of a racially-divided system of teacher preparation and its dismantling post-apartheid. Looking Through Philosophy in Black Mabogo Percy More 2018-12-11 This autobiography is a series of interrelated true-life events and decisions taken by a black philosopher that highlight the human drama unfolding in the inferno of the South African apartheid system. Mabogo More details what it means to be a black philosopher in an anti-black apartheid academic world. More's life story traces his emergence in philosophy and his pursuit of a philosophical dream, a dream that takes him from his South African black ghetto township to American and British universities and finally to the prestigious Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement award. His extraordinary philosophical autobiography, with an emphasis on African existentialism that takes into account issues of racism, identity, liberation, freedom, alienation, responsibility and bad faith, is supplemented by three key essays from his intellectual career representing the extraordinary contribution he has made to African philosophy and black existentialism.
